DICK FOWLER IS CHOSEN TO CARRY HICKMAN CROWD

Will Take Part in Reception to President Taft in Kentucky.

Boat Will be Repainted and Overhauled.

WILL NOT GO ANY FARTHER

Citizens of Hickman, Ky., have chartered the local packet steamer Dick Fowler for the reception to President Taft there on October 26, next Tuesday. The Fowler, in command of Capt. N. F. (Buck) Roberts and his crew, will leave here Monday afternoon, October 25, for Hickman arriving there late at night and ready for service Tuesday.

It is probable that a large number of Paducah citizens will go to Hickman on the Fowler and return. The idea of including the Fowler in the presidential fleet's trip down the Mississippi to New Orleans has been given up by the Fowler Packet company here. It would be an enormous cost to make the trip, and as the line was not given assurance of a sufficient number of people to reimburse them the proposition was abandoned. Instead the Fowler will participate in the festivities at Hickman. President Taft will leave St. Louis next Monday, being at Hickman Tuesday and Memphis Wednesday. A large number of steamboats will go down accompanied by the United States torpedo flotilla, which will be an inspiring scene.

The Fowler is being repainted and her cabin overhauled so as she will be in first class shape for the trip. She recently was repaired at the Mound City marine ways. The boat is one of the swiftest on the river and a favorite of many. She will resume her Paducah and Cairo trade as soon as there is sufficient water.

City Hall is Torn Up.
The interior of the city hall looks as if a cyclone had gone through it today. It was only the contractors at work making the many modern alterations that will accompany the construction of the third story. Walls are being torn away and new ones made in place of doors. The council chamber was laid bare and pushed rapidly. Work on the new central fire station is still at a standstill on account of stone falling to arrive. It is expected every day and Chief Wood and his men are anxious to get in their new headquarters by the first of the year.

One Killed When Balcony Falls.
Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 20.—A balcony on East avenue, on which stood a party of women viewing the Rochester day industrial and civic parade, gave way. Mrs. Henry G. Myers was killed and two other women were slightly hurt.

Guthrie's Pigeons Lost.
Mr. El Guthrie, of North Fifth street, is mourning the loss of eight of his finest pigeons as the result of the work of some thief. Although Mr. Guthrie valued the birds at over $50, but he feels the loss keenly because some of his choicest birds were taken. The pigeons were fan-tails, pointers and carriers and the next visit the thief is promised a warm reception.

MRS. OGILVIE OPERATED ON TO REMOVE A TUMOR.
Fireman Leslie Ogilvie of the Central fire station has received the news that his mother, Mrs. S. L. Ogilvie, of LaKemp, Okla., has been operated on at the Mayfield sanitarium in St. Louis to remove a tumor. Mrs. Ogilvie formerly resided in Paducah, and her many friends will regret to learn of her condition which is not considered dangerous, however.

Mandamus Proceedings

Mandamus proceedings were filed in circuit court this evening by J. S. Ragsdale to compel the county clerk to place his name on the Democratic ticket for the legislature. He filed a petition of voters, and alleges that the committee were not duly sworn and the nomination of Eugene Graves was illegal and void.

Bower Tells More of Talk With Oliphant August 4 and Mr. Tully Says Oliphant Was in the Stable

President of the Vincennes Bridge Company Went Across River This Morning and Reporters Failed to See Him for Interview.

Hearing of the presence of J. T. Oliphant, president of the Vincennes Bridge company, in a number of places today, reporters for The Evening Sun scoured the city in search of him, having a number of important questions for him to answer, since he has entered into the local political situation. It was at last learned that he left the city this morning, going across the river. It is not known whether he will return.

Councilman W. L. Bower, whose affidavit about bridge graft, brought Mr. Oliphant to the city, did not see him. Mr. Bower, when interviewed by a reporter for The Sun today, said:

"My previous statement and affidavit cover what took place between Mr. Oliphant and myself very well. He was looking for some land, and we secured a rig from Mr. Tully and drove out the husbands road early in the morning of August 4, so that Mr. Oliphant could return in time to catch the noon train. After looking over the tract from the road Mr. Oliphant said it would not suit his purpose, and that was the end of our talk about land. There was no hard feeling and no occasion for any, and Mr. Oliphant's statement that I felt aggrieved because I could not see him land, is foolish. We parted pleasantly.

"It was on our return that he opened up and told me he had to fix the 'whole game.' On that occasion, too, he told me he had given Bert Johnson a job, a fact since substantiated, but at that time not divulged. The price of cement also came out what he told me. Soon after he returned to the city I told Wynn Tully, Bob Noble, W. F. Bradshaw, Sr., and John Farley, what Oliphant had told me. That was early in August, and I had no thought of the political effect of what I told them. The story spread over the city, and about three weeks ago, Mr. Hazell asked me if I would be willing to make the story public. I told him I would rather keep out of the matter; but I am not afraid to back up my word with my oath, and after being earnestly solicited, I repeated the statement in the form of an affidavit, though my name was at first not divulged."

Mr. Tully's Statement.
Mr. Tully, who remembers the date because of an entry in his books, said, as he recollected, Mr. Oliphant was in the stable when Bower told of his statement.

Ice Jury Incomplete.
New York, Oct. 20.—The jury for the trial of the American ice company charged with a misdemeanor in attempted restraint of trade, still lacked two men when the day's session of the supreme court ended this afternoon. The work of completing the jury will be resumed tomorrow afternoon.

BANNER YEAR FOR RAILROAD WORK IN THIS COUNTRY

Pittsburgh, Oct. 20.—The biggest railroad year in history is predicted. Orders for cars and locomotives are unprecedented. One locomotive works broke the record last week when $8,550,000 worth were ordered. Freight cars are in unusual demand.

Miss Lizzie Ederington Speaks in Own Defense

To my Many Friends:—It is indeed embarrassing for me to have to appear in print, but it will be impossible for me to see you personally and I take this method of addressing you in defense of myself and resent the manner in which Col. Gus Singleton is using my name to further his interest. From reliable sources it has come to me that he is telling my friends that he had promised to make me his deputy in case he was elected to the office of county clerk. I desire to say most emphatically that he has never made me any such promise nor intimated to me that I would be connected with the office in any way whatever. The only unsolicited and unconditional promise that has been made me was by Prof. John D. Smith.

LIZZIE EDERINGTON.

BARKLEY TELLS WHY HE ALLOWED BONDING CO. FEE

Gets Confused as to Policy and Practice of State Auditor of Ky.

Melodramatic Appearance of Mr. Oliphant.

TO EXPLAIN HIS CONTRACTS

In a most melodramatic fashion J. T. Oliphant, president of the Vincennes Bridge company, of Vincennes, Ind., appeared at the debate between T. N. Hazell and County Attorney Alben Barkley, candidates for county judge, at Milan school house last night, and denied that he had ever told Councilman W. L. Bower he was compelled to fix the whole court house ring of McCracken county.

The school was crowded to suffocation. Mr. Hazell opened the debate, by recalling the Smedley settlement in which Mr. Barkley settled with Smedley's bonding company for less than the amount due the county, allowed the company five per cent for paying it and did not collect a penalty of 20 percent and interest for the time Smedley is alleged to have used the county's money. To this Mr. Barkley replied that the Republican state auditor had been allowing about a hundred delinquent Democratic county clerks to pay back money stolen from the state without penalty and prosecution, and he allowed the same privilege to Mr. Smedley's bonding company.

Mr. Hazell rejoined that State Auditor's Agent W. M. Husbands had offered the same terms to Mr. Smedley; but when Mr. Smedley did not refund the money, Mr. Husbands for the state auditor sued the company to collect the full amount due the state with the penalty, showing that the state auditor did not extend the privilege to bonding companies.

Bridge Matter.
The Perkins creek and Clark's river bridge cases also were opened up and Mr. Hazell showed that the company paid for cement 21 cents more than the market price, and that the concern furnishing the cement leased the plant of County Judge Lightfoot. He flashed the affidavit of W. L. Bower, which said Oliphant had told him it was necessary to fix the court house ring.

Mr. Hazell, rejoicing to the assertion that all the members of the fiscal court had been summoned before the grand jury, which investigated the bridge matter, said he himself went to R. L. Nelson, foreman of the grand jury, and a friend of the county organization, and told Mr. Nelson of a certain magistrate, who could give information. That magistrate was never summoned, nor was Mr. Oliphant; but the latter was brought here after the grand jury had adjourned to make a denial of something, which everybody knew he must deny.

It was at the conclusion of Mr. Hazell's rejoinder, that Mr. Barkley, whose friends had taken Oliphant out, according to prearrangement, announced that Mr. Oliphant was in the hall and would like to speak. While Hazell was speaking the horn of an auto was sounded outside as a signal and Mr. Barkley went out at a gesture from a friend in the audience.

Mr. Oliphant said he had nothing against Mr. Hazell; but he denied everything in Bower's affidavit. This was greeted with banal by Gus Singleton.

Registration Figures Show Two Parties in Relatively the Same Positions as in Election of 1907

| | Rep. | Dem. | Scat. | Total |
|--------|------|------|-------|-------|
| 1907 | 2159 | 2689 | 292 | 5140 |
| 1909 | 1838 | 2332 | 191 | 4361 |
| Losses | 321 | 357 | 101 | 779 |

Political dope is as uncertain as horse racing, but the Republicans of Paducah are sanguine today over the prospects of victory, based on the registration returns, which show the party in the city is 36 votes to the good, as compared with the registration in 1907, when James P. Smith was elected mayor, and 535 to the good as compared with the registration of 1909 when Bryan carried by 246. In 1907 the Democratic majority on registration was 530 and the Republicans carried the city by 294, making a difference of 824 between the Democratic registration and the Democratic vote. In 1908 the Democratic registration showed a Democratic majority of 1029. Bryan received a majority of 246, making a difference of 783 between the Democratic vote and the registration. This record for two years, the first in which the Democratic registration was comparatively at its lowest, and the latter when the Democratic registration was comparatively the highest in history, shows a significantly uniform loss of 800 votes between the registration and the vote. Republican leaders interpret this to mean that an average of 800 voters register as Democrats, but vote the Republican ticket at the election. If this holds true the Republicans should carry the city by 500.

Their satisfaction is not alloyed by any recollections of the Democratic city primary May 6, when only 1320 votes were cast, 1012 fewer than the Democratic registration. Of those votes cast at the primary, too, Dave Cross received 849 for police judge, considerably more than half, and "Scottie" Ferguson, the popular bartender, candidate for councilman in the first ward, received 613 votes, leading the councilmanic ticket and receiving just 106 fewer than half the votes.

Both parties showed a falling off from 1907, the Republicans dropping 32 votes, the Democrats 357 and scattering 101. The registration of 1907 was just before the panic. The resumption of industry was completed only this summer and many of the returning workmen cannot vote this year.

Second Day's Work.

In the second day's registration the Democrats registered 386 voters, the Republicans 374 and the Independents 33, as follows:

CREW MURDERED BY THE NATIVES

ENTICED ASHORE AND HACKED TO PIECES WITH BARBAROUS KNIVES.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 20.—Further details of the massacres of New Britons last month, received by the steamer Maria Mara, yesterday says Captain Lindsay, of Ketch Rebaul, and ten of the crew were murdered, and burned. Trading vessels were looted and burned. Lindsay, who owned and was master of the Rebaul was prominent in the New Britain trade, was off the east coast of New Britain recruiting laborers. A swarm of blacks asked him ashore, saying there were plenty of men ready to sign as laborers. Lindsay went ashore, and was struck down from behind by a spear. Blacks sprang upon him and hacked him to death with knives. A flotilla of canoes then went to the Rebaul, swarmed aboard, and one after another, ten men of the crew were slaughtered.

GREAT PENNSYLVANIA TUNNEL IS COMPLETE

New York, Oct. 20.—The first trip through the wonderful tunnel from Jersey City to Long Island City under the Hudson and East rivers was made this morning. It plunges under the Hudson and emerges in the new Pennsylvania terminal and plunges under the East river. It took years to build, and cost a hundred million dollars.

MOROCCAN REBELS HEM IN SPANISH

PLANT CANNON WHERE IT COMMANDS CITY OF MELILLA.

Lisbon, Oct. 20.—Reports from Moroccan natives say Riff tribesmen have planted a cannon within two miles of the center of Melilla and the Spanish position is serious. Riffs are attacking with full force, using heavy guns obtained through the officers of Mulai Hafid's army. The attack began Sunday morning, according to the report. Tribesmen depleted the outer works of the city despite heavy losses. Natives are continuing the attack. Spanish losses are small as yet.

TY COBB GIVES UP AND WILL BE FINED

GREAT DETROIT HITTER FURNISHES BOND IN CLEVELAND COURT.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 20.—Ty Cobb, Detroit's star batsman, surrendered himself to Sheriff Hirsutius here this morning, and immediately was arranged to answer to an indictment, charging him with "stabbing to wound" George Staneheld, night watchman, of the Euclid hotel here.

Cobb's trial is set for November 22 and his bail fixed at $500. Bond immediately was arranged by Attorney R. E. McKisson and Cobb was released.

COOK AND PEARY SUBMIT PROOFS OF DISCOVERIES

Copenhagen, Oct. 20.—The faculty of the University of Copenhagen today refused to yield to the National Geographical society or America its rights to make the first scientific examination of Cook's north pole data.

The faculty practically was unanimous in demanding that its priority in the affairs be respected. Cook had agreed to submit his data to the American Geographical society if the Danish scientists would waive their claim. The faculty today made arrangements for a thorough investigation of Cook's claims.

Peary's Proofs.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The claim of Peary reaching the north pole will be passed on by a sub-committee of the research committee of the National Geographical society of Washington, according to a decision of the board of managers of the society today. In response to an invitation from the committee last week, Peary sent what he believed to be sufficient data to establish his claim. The board of managers decided to refer the matter to the committee on research, and the chairman of that committee appointed the following to examine the proofs: Rear Admiral Colby M. Chester, retired; O. H. Tittman, superintendent United States geodetic survey, and Professors Henry Gannett, geologist of the United States geological survey.

TEXAS ROUND-UP FOR PRESIDENT TAFT'S PLEASURE

Adjoining Ranch Will Entertain Famous Visitor With Roping Exhibition.

Receives Possum Caught in a Church.

HOW HE SPENDS HIS HOURS

Gregory, Tex., Oct. 20.—This morning President Taft played golf with his brother and then went to the new boat and bath house on the bay. The water is a comfortable temperature all the year. Before resuming his transcontinental journey the veteran fishermen hope to take President Taft out tarpon fishing. "If you hook a 15 pounder, you'll find it beats golf for exercising," said an old fisherman today. A dozen deputies are guarding all roads leading to the cottage where Taft is staying. Nobody can approach within three miles. Besides his brother, Secretary Dickinson and Captain Butt are the only ones in the cottage with him. A pass signed by John Green, manager of the ranch, is necessary to get near the party. This afternoon President Taft is attending an old-fashioned roundup on the Rincon ranch, seven miles from here, adjoining the great Taft ranch. In order to show the President how they do things in Texas, steers are being roped and branded, bucking bronchos caught and broken, the "chuck" wagon furnishing refreshments for the crowd. When asked if he wished to see it, Taft said "Deed-lighted."

President Taft began his three days of doing as he pleased on his brother's ranch by playing eighteen holes of golf yesterday morning over a muddy course and by "just loafing" through the long afternoon and evening. Mr. Taft was as happy as a boy out of school. The idea of eating a dinner without having to speak for it and of going the liveliest day without having to make a speech appealed to him strongly, and he declared he wished his far southern vacation could last a week and three days instead of just the latter period. While the president was golfing and resting the members of his party enjoyed themselves in various ways.

Secretary of War Dickinson and Capt. Archie Butt were up before the sun and started out on an all-day duck shooting expedition to the fresh water tanks on the ranch, ten miles away from the "farm house" at LaQuinta, a variable palace on the shores of Corpus Christi bay, looking out over the waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

They returned late in the afternoon with quite a bag and dined the president's taunting insinuation that they had been presented with the birds.

Weather and Water Warm.
Other members of the party took long horseback rides and had a swim in the bay. The president will probably go in bathing each remaining morning of his stay. Both weather and water are fine.

Ranch hands out hunting killed two wildcats, two wild boars and a raccoon. All were presented to the president.

He will be presented with a big and comfortable saddle made especially for him. He was given an opossum, which was caught in a church at Arkansas Pass by Tom Martin. The president banished his assistant secretaries from LaQuinta, and gave no thought to public business in any way.

Having Time of Life.
He roamed about the grounds adjoining the house, walked out on the long pier leading into the bay to watch those who were in swimming, and declared he was having the time of his life.

The president's playdays will end Friday morning, however, when he will be taken by boat to Corpus Christi, to be the guest of the city during the day, and to address the convention of the Inland Waterways association.

Tomorrow there will be a round-up of the cattle and sheep on the ranch for branding purposes and the president will witness the unusual scene. He has a splendid saddle horse at his disposal and a brand new saddle made especially for him.

There are five automobiles on the ranch and several motor boats. When the president arrived here he was conducted by his brother to one of the puffing, throbbing machines. He said: "Automobiles, eh? Well, they tell me all you rich farmers have them these days."

Claims Repudiated.
Constantinople, Oct. 20.—Porte has repudiated the foreign claims in connection with the Adams massacre.

Why Cole's Hot Blast Is Supreme Over All Heating Stoves

Every part of Cole's Hot Blast Heater is a stove masterpiece. And government patents permit them on Cole's Hot Blast only. Every little detail contributes towards making Cole's Hot Blast the fuel saver, a perfect heat radiator, a stove that holds fire from Saturday night to Monday morning, and the cleanest stove ever set up.

Read this detailed story of a heating marvel and you will see why we can back Cole's Hot Blast with the iron-clad guarantee we give every purchaser. You will see why 60,000 Cole's Hot Blasts are made and shipped by the Cole Manufacturing Co. each year, three times the annual output of any other one make of heaters. You will see why they are distancing all would-be rivals in the heating stove trade with a business growing by leaps and bounds each season—why we can sell you a greater bargain than any one.

The Hot Blast Draft

This is a view of the stove with a hole cut in the side to show how the Hot Blast makes perfect combustion.

In an ordinary stove gas, which is half the heat value of coal, arises from the coal as the coal burns and the gas goes right on up the chimney. Not so with Cole's Hot Blast Heater. The Hot Blast Draft on top of the fire burns the coal from the top—burns the gas. Thus a given amount of coal gives off twice as much heat as in an ordinary heater.

Air-Tight Construction

Anything less than an air-tight construction means that the stove is getting draft through cracks, seams or openings, even when the draft is closed. So the air-tight feature will prove the supremacy of Cole's Hot Blast over all other stoves as to perfect fire holding and heat control.

Note this picture of bottom of the stove where draft enters. See the water-tight bottom, the patented compound hinge making possible a perfect ground surface where ash door rests. It is automatic in its closing, cannot be warped by the heat so as to leak air and needs only the force of gravity to keep it closed and air-tight. The cut also shows the patented steel collar fastening the casting to the steel body of the stove. This patented feature gives the only way in which a casting can be connected to sheet metal so as to stay tight. It is used only on Cole's Hot Blast. Every detail government patented. So you find them only on Cole's Hot Blast.

Radiation—Durability

The ideal stove is one which radiates all the heat thrown off from the fuel into the room instead of letting it go up the chimney, and one which will withstand the severe use year after year which a heating stove is necessarily subjected to.

Sheet steel is the most sensitive radiating surface. Cast iron withstands the wear and tear of the heat from the active combustion better than other material.

You will see from a glance at the accompanying cut that practically the entire radiating surface of this remarkable stove is sensitive sheet metal and at the same time is fully protected from the active combustion by a heavy cast iron fire pot, a cast iron lining extending 7 inches above the fire pot and with a heavy inner steel lining extending from the cast lining to the top of the stove.

There are 3651 square inches of steel radiating surface in a 24-inch Cole's Hot Blast as compared with 1766 in a base burner with the same size fire pot.

Cleanliness—Easy to Care For Users of coal must remember that the ordinary heater is a big care to operate. That its smoke and ashes entail dusting, curtain washing and carpet sweeping. Think then of the ease of operation and the cleanliness of Cole's Hot Blast.

Cole's Hot Blast has a smoke-proof feed door—located at the top of the stove as shown in illustration. Open the feed door and the current of air draws the smoke directly across the stove to the stove-pipe—away from the opening. Contrast this simple, cleanly feed with the side door in an ordinary heater. The side door permits escape of dirty smoke, unpleasant gas and accumulated soot drops from it. If you overfill a side door, stove coal falls to the floor. And note this, you cannot make a side door heater air-tight—an everlasting advantage in favor of Cole's Hot Blast which is air-tight and guaranteed to remain so always.

Method of Removing Ashes

No ashes or coals can drop on the floor when being removed, as the hot sets clear under the projecting casting. By this arrangement the fire pot sets close to the floor and warms it—there are no leaky joints around ash doors and absolute cleanliness is possible. The small ash pans used in other stoves are invariably overfilled and ashes, coals, and dust are dragged out on the floor when they are removed.

Beautiful in Appearance

Cole's Hot Blast is a beautifully ornamented and beautifully proportioned stove. The beautiful ornamental nickel-plated parts are copper plated before being nickel-plated. There are no cracks or seams to open and leak dirt over different parts of the stove. You will find your stove just as tight and clean and will treasure it as much in ten years as when put up.

Now Sum It All Up

We guarantee to do what we say we do. Here is the "show me" black and white guarantee—the most binding—most remarkable, ever made on a stove: "You are authorized to sell the Original Cole's Hot Blast Heater this year on the most rigid guarantee ever made by any manufacturer. Our guarantee to every customer of yours is—
1—A saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal, slack or lignite.
2—That Cole's Hot Blast will use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with same size fire pot.
3—That the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
4—That the stove will hold fire with soft coal from Saturday night until Monday morning.
5—A uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
6—That every stove will remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
7—That the feed-door is and will remain smoke and dust-proof.
All we ask is that the stove shall be operated according to directions and set up with a good flue.

FRANCE ASSESSES MAXIMUM RATE

ON ALL IMPORTATIONS FROM THE UNITED STATES.

No Tariff War Feared But France May Have to Pay Maximum Rates on All Exports.

TO U. S. AFTER MARCH 31 NEXT

Washington, Oct. 20.—The government officials were not disposed to regard the action of France in assessing the maximum duties against all the imports from the United States as an evidence of her intention to wage a tariff war against the United States.

August 7, Taft in pursuance of the new tariff act notified France, Switzerland and Bulgaria that our commercial agreements with them would be terminated October 31. Other governments were notified that similar agreements would terminate on certain other dates.

Last month the French government abrogated our commercial agreement with that country and since then there was no expectation that beginning November 1 American exports to France would be taxed at the minimum rates, as from that date the exportations of France to the United States will pay our full schedule rates, these rates to be continued until March 31, when the new maximum features of the act go into effect.

France, more than any other country in Europe, has discriminated against American products. Germany gives the United States her minimum rates on 95 per cent of our exportations into Germany. France charged her maximum rates on all our exportations, with the exception of a very few articles enumerated in the Dingley tariff act.

It remains to be seen whether between now and March 31 France will give the United States her minimum rates on substantially all of our exports to France or accept the consequence of having to pay our maximum rates. These are the schedule rates of the new tariff act, with 25 per cent added.

The effect of having to pay our maximum rate will undoubtedly put France at a tremendous disadvantage as compared with other European nations in handling American goods.

America is probably France's best market for brands and wines. It is expected that she will seriously consider whether she can afford to pay a rate considerably higher than she has been paying, also the additional increase of 25 per cent over this.

It is reported that there are preservatives used in French champagnes which might come under the ban of the pure food regulations. This may figure in the event of retaliatory steps.

Strong Resolutions Adopted at Meeting Yesterday—Shown That the Railroad Pamphlet

GAVE MISLEADING INFORMATION

Cincinnati, Oct. 20.—That any general advance in freight rates will disturb the existing business condition and that such advance is unjustified and will be vigorously contested by shippers' organizations, was the tenor of resolutions adopted at the meeting of representative shippers and other commercial organizations from many parts of the country, held at the Sinto hotel. The resolutions follow:

Whereas, C. C. McCain, chairman of the Trunk Line association, compiled a pamphlet entitled "The Diminished Purchasing Power of Railway Earnings,"

Whereas, The railroads of said association circulated the same with the avowed purpose of educating the public,

Whereas, The true purpose is to prepare the public for an advance in freight rates, and

Whereas, Said pamphlet is biased, partial, misleading and omitting among other things, the following facts and figures:

The net income per mile of the railroads of the United States in 1907 exceeded that of 1897 by $1.534, an increase of 345 per cent. The net income per mile of the roads of New England for 1907 exceeded by $740 that of 1897, an increase of 41 per cent. The net income per mile of the roads of the trunk line territory in 1907 exceeded that of 1897 by $2,525, an increase of 170 per cent. The net income per mile of the roads of the central freight association territory in 1907 exceeded that of 1897 by $1,665, an increase of 521 per cent. The surplus from the operations of the roads of the latter group for 1907 was $258 per mile greater than the net income of the roads of said group for 1897. The net income of all railroads in the United States for 1907 was $449,461,188, for 1897 $81,257,506. Excess of 1907 over 1897, $368,203,682 an increase of 453 per cent. The surplus from operations of all railroads in the United States for 1907 exceeded the net income for 1897 by $60,065,785. The amount of stock paying dividends increased from $1,603,549,978 in 1897 to $4,948,756,203 in 1907. The increase was $3,345,206,225. The rate of dividend on stock increased from 5.43 in 1897 to 6.23 per cent in 1907. Increase, 14.7 per cent.

For 1907 the profit per mile for all trains exceeded the profit for 1897 by 25.4 cents per mile, an increase of 56 per cent. Now, therefore, be it resolved by shippers from all sections of the United States in conference assembled:

First—That as said pamphlet does not set forth all the facts and is biased and misleading, it is not a proper one for informing and educating the public.

Second—That the facts don't justify any general advance in freight rates, but on the contrary call for a reduction.

Third—That the executive committee of this conference is hereby created with all powers of this conference.

Fourth—That the said committee is hereby instructed to prepare a full and complete answer to said pamphlet or similar pamphlets, and circulate the same for the education of the public on the true freight rate situation, and that for the correction of the erroneous impression resulting from the said pamphlet or others of a similar nature.

Fifth—That as any general advance in freight rates will disturb the existing conditions, the same is hereby opposed and will be resisted by all legitimate means.

Sixth—That when this conference adjourns it is subject to the call of the chairman.

REORGANIZATION PLAN FOR SEABOARD AIR LINE.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 20.—United States Circuit Judge J. C. Pritchard approved the plan of reorganization of the Seaboard Air Line Railway company and signed a final decree directing S. Warfield Davies, R. Lancaster Williams and E. C. Duncan, the receivers, to deliver the property to the railway company November 4. The plan of reorganization was that which has been hitherto substantially approved by Judge Goff. The decree was presented by Leigh B. Watts, general counsel, and James F. Wright, assistant counsel of the Seaboard and the Continental Trust company, on whose complaint receivership was granted, was represented by Innes Brown, of New York. The decree sets out that no person in interest objected to the plan or reorganization, or decree. Mr. Watts entered the consent of the Atlanta and Birmingham Air Line railway, which has recently been included in the Seaboard system.

News of Theatres

"The people of the south," says Miss Beulah Poynter, "are peculiarly clannish, when it comes to their amusements, and show a remarkable fondness for plays that have their scenes laid on their side of the Mason and Dixon line. That is one reason that I think my new, original play, 'The Swamp Girl,' met with such tremendous success down there. The press said lots of nice things about us and were very gracious to me, but I like to give the credit to the play. Even then it reflects commendation on me, because you know I wrote the play myself. Then, too, the people of the south are intensely loyal to their favorites—far more so than the people of the north. I remember when I was very young Mr. Tim Murphy made a big success through the south with his play 'The Carpet-bagger' and now he goes south year after year and is always greeted by large audiences. Southerners delight to honor those who please them, and social honors of all sorts are always accorded us—more than we can accept, for the life of a traveling actress is a hard one and the exactions of a railroad time table are very trying. Particularly are the people there fond of hearing their own soft and sweet accents on the stage, and to hear the beautiful magnolias and waving oaks praised in the proper lines of the playwright. The element of romance flames much more brightly there than in the north which is probably one reason why our sort of play finds such favor."

GAME SCHEDULED WITH HOP-TOWN HIGH SCHOOL.

Paducah High Will Meet Them
Saturday—P. A. C.'s Go to Carbondale.

Football lovers will have an opportunity to see a fast game next Saturday afternoon when the Hopkinsville High school team will line up against the Paducah High school at League park. It will be the first meeting this year, and a warm battle may be expected. Paducah has vanquished Hopkinsville in past years but this season the boys from Christian county are coming with a strong team and threaten to exterminate High school's goal line. Coach Craig has trained his men thoroughly for the battle and the two weeks rest has placed them in splendid trim.

Friday afternoon the Paducah Athletic club will go to Carbondale, Ill., and play the strong Carbondale eleven. However, the right half back who sprained his ankle in Sunday's game will be unable to play. Groves will be on the side lines. However the Athletic club expects to win from Carbondale.

Take Electric Bitters at once and see Backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. R. Blankenship, of Belk, Tenn. Only 50c at all druggists.

RADIANT HAIR

New York Society Women's Hair
Matched Only By Parisians.

For many years the clever women of Paris have been famed for the magnificent beauty of their hair.
"Glorious hair," a Virginian calls it; "so radiant and luxuriant that it not only attracts but fascinates, and compels unstinted admiration."

But now that the elite of New York, ever anxious to improve their beauty, have learned that Parisian Sage, a remarkable and almost marvelous hair nourisher and beautifier, is almost entirely responsible for the charming hair of the ladies of France, the demand for it has become enormous.

A Philadelphia chemist who analyzed Parisian Sage said: "It is the ideal dressing for the hair. The ingredients are so scientifically combined that Parisian Sage is first of all a hair grower, because it surely destroys dandruff germs, and nourishes the hair roots."

"Second, it puts life, substance and brilliancy into the hair, which improves the attractiveness of any one."

"Third, it is very delicately scented; is not a particle sticky or greasy, and does not contain one atom of anything that could possibly injure scalp or hair."

Parisian Sage is now sold all over America by progressive druggists, and in Paducah by W. J. Gilbert, who is glad to guarantee it to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Price 50 cents. Made in America by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., who fill mail orders. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

BOARD DOES NOT LIKE STREET TAR

WHICH STREET CAR COMPANY HAS USED BETWEEN TRACKS.

Oil Soaks Into Ground and Does Not Injure Clothing of Pedestrians.

MEETING HELD YESTERDAY

On the streets of the city the board of public works has used 22,000 gallons of oil, and 42 blocks have been oiled as an experiment. However, the board has already learned that the streets must be swept clean before the oil is placed on the surface. Jefferson and Broadway were swept clean and the oil soaked readily, but on another street the board did not have time to sweep the street clean, and the oil is not absorbed as readily. No more oil will be spread on the streets this year.

Next year it is planned to oil the streets in June and the oil is calculated to prevent dust for six months, which would cover the dry months, and addition be a big saving for the gravel streets. The members are not pleased with the experiment with tar by the traction company between the rails. The tar is not absorbed by the street and can be carried into the houses weeks after it has been placed on the streets. Oil is unpleasant for a few days, but after that is absorbed.

Work of repairing the Caldwell street bridge will begin Thursday. The bridge will be braced and strengthened, and a smooth floor laid. Only three days will be required to do the work provided the mill can furnish the material.

Employees of the Illinois Central railroad requested that a plank walk be erected from the end of Clark street to the shops for their convenience. The members appeared willing to do the work, but referred the petition back to the employees in order that they might get permission from the railroad which owns the property the walks would have to be built on.

The board decided to make the sidewalks on Fountain avenue six feet wide. The board decided the five feet would be too narrow for the sidewalks.

The contract with the Nortonville Coal company to furnish the city coal for the city light plant at 80 cents was ratified by the board. It is the same price paid last year to a different company.

A plank walk on Twenty-second street between Broadway and Jefferson street was reported in bad condition, and the board decided to remove it from the public highway unless improved by private property owners. The walk was built by private property owners and the board has not been authorized to improve the street.

Present at the meeting were President Richard Rudy and Mr. Finis Lack.

NO JURIES

JUDGE COCHRAN WILL CALL IN OUTSIDERS.

Action Due to Prejudice in Night
Rider Cases—Trials May Be Delayed.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 20.—While the cases of several independent tobacco manufacturers which were called on the docket of the United States court here will not be taken to other districts, Judge A. M. J. Cochran, who is hearing them, wishes they would be. He said in court that he would draw juries from the Catlettsburg and London districts with the view in mind of getting men from those bodies who will be unprejudiced and who will be able to give the cases undivided attention because they themselves are away from the tobacco districts of Kentucky.

There are several suits against the Burley Tobacco society, four of them growing out of alleged "night rider" campaigns, and all of them, totalling something close to $1,000,000, is the damages asked.

"There is so much feeling here about these cases that it is hard to get a jury to get away from that feeling in summing up the cases," said Judge Cochran. "I do not know whether I can get a jury here in time to try the cases at this term or not, and if I cannot they will have to wait until the next term."

That the cases will be bitterly fought is attested by the lists of attorneys, some of whom are Senator Bradley, Attorney John Allen, of Lexington; D. L. Pendleton, of Lexington; T. L. Edelen, of Frankfort.

Crawford—This long dry spell must be bad for the farmers. Crabshaw—I suppose so; but just think what a blessing it has been to the fellows who bought those $4.99 summer suits.—Puck.

Even doctors disagree, and when they do, it helps to swell the population of one of the other two places.

TIME IS THE TEST.

The Testimony of Paducah People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Paducah people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

J. W. Wootan, retired, 1033 Harrison street, Paducah, Ky., says: "I was a sufferer from kidney complaint and backache and my case was of several years standing. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I procured a supply at Du Bois Son & Co.'s drug store and their use brought very satisfactory results. Some years ago I told of my experience with this remedy in a public statement and lapse of time has only strengthened by high opinion of it."

(Statement given February 18, 1903.)

Mr. Wootan was interviewed on March 6, 1909, and he said: "I am glad to confirm all I have previously said regarding Doan's Kidney Pills. The cure this remedy effected in my case nearly ten years ago has been permanent."

Gov. Willson Refuses to Give Their

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 20.—No word has been received of the movements of the soldiers ordered out from Cynthiana last Sunday night, but it is believed they are on the way to Bath county, where it is reported several farmers have been warned by night riders to pool their tobacco or suffer the consequences.

Gov. Willson was here today, but refused to reveal the soldiers' destination.

A special from Mason county says the following note was found pinned to the door of the residence of Fred Adams today:

"Fred Adams and Wife,
"We give you just five days to sign your tobacco to the Mason county board of control or one of its collectors, and if at the end of that time we find you have not signed, you will have to suffer the consequences. "BRACKEN CO. NIGHT RIDERS."
Adams says he will not sign his tobacco and is prepared for the coming of the riders.

STOCK BOOKS NOT LOCATED

PROSECUTION MAKES EFFORT
TO RECOVER $5,000 LOST.

Efforts Were Made to Make a Compromise, But This Could Not Be Accomplished.

BUCKET SHOP CASE IS UP

Cincinnati, Oct. 20.—Efforts of the prosecution in the case of A. G. Roberts and W. M. Farless, of Henderson, Ky., to recover something more than $5,000 from W. D. Klausman and B. H. Morehead, of the defunct company of Morehead & Co., were directed today in the federal court to bring to light ledgers and minute books covering the business of the company in 1906 and 1907. Effort was also made to produce a stock book—which the prosecution claims does not exist, the idea being to prove the contention of the prosecution that there was never any stock issued by the company. After a deposition from the cashier of the Evansville National Bank was read, Attorney Charles Dolle was placed on the stand. He said that he had been unable to find the books which the prosecution sought.

The prosecution then introduced H. H. Winans, cashier of the merged American National Bank, which handled the funds of Klausman and Morehead. Winans said the funds of the Morehead company were deposited under the name of B. H. Morehead individually.

"Your honor," said Attorney Roberts, "we can show that the money won from my clients was telegraphed by Gavitt, the Evansville agent, direct to the American National Bank, minus Gavitt's commission; that it was deposited under the name of Morehead, as an individual; that from time to time the funds accumulated from the hundred agencies throughout the country were checked against by Morehead for the personal use of himself and Klausman, no less than to meet gambling losses. We can show that on November 4, 1907, however, there remained nearly $400,000 on deposit, and that on that day it was 'whacked up' between Morehead, and Klausman. We can show that while operations were conducted under the name of Morehead & Co., the money won was constantly being converted to the use of these two individuals."

"The plaintiffs are suing to recover some $5,000 alleged to have been lost in gambling. Let them confine themselves to that," was the stand of the defense.

Court Adjourned.

Finally court was adjourned for half an hour or more while an effort was made at compromise. It only succeeded to this extent, however, that Cashier Winans was taken from the stand, and an agreed statement was dictated to the stenographer for the benefit of the jury that the defense agreed that the funds of the Morehead company were deposited in the name of Morehead individually.

James M. Hutton, a Cincinnati broker, was then introduced to distinguish between legitimate and illegitimate stock trading, but Attorney Cassatt objected on the ground that even yet it proven that the defendants operated a bucket shop, the present case concerned itself, with a specific transaction to which attention should be confined.

The court ruled against any comparison of Hutton's methods with those of Morehead and Klausman.

The prosecution then introduced Supt. I. N. Miller of the Western Union Telegraph company. Miller said that during the period covered by the transactions at issue, Morehead & Co. had three ticker wires from New York.

"Did they have a 'fast wire'?"
"Yes, beginning April 1, 1907."

"What was this fast wire?"
An objection was interposed on the ground that the time specified was after the term mentioned in the suit.

It was brought out that the so-called "fast wire" was not installed, if at all, till after the present transaction is alleged to have taken place, and therefore no explanation of it was made in court.

Evelyn Guyan, who was confidential secretary of the B. H. Morehead company for some months prior to the bankruptcy action, was called late in the day. She said she kept records in loose carbon copies. When asked to identify certain sheets she was unable to do so.

Charles L. Kramer who had charge of the stock delivery book, declared that when an order came in calling for delivery of stocks he would get the stocks through other brokers.

Cossacks to Overawe Finns.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—Two regiments of Cossacks and a battery have been dispatched to Finland to overawe any opposition to the new measures which will be put in force if the situation in the duchy justifies it. The Finns are maintaining a passive attitude. The only positive step taken has been the refusal of six senators to comply with the emperor's mandate that they retain their posts.

A mill will be established shortly in Sweden for spinning yarn from paper.

PORTS FOR CANAL

ARMY AND NAVAL BOARD TO MAKE PLANS.

Big Guns and Other Necessary Accessories to Be Placed at Entrances to Waterway.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The important work of constructing fortifications for the entrances to the Panama canal will be given careful consideration by a joint army and navy board during the coming winter. This board, the personnel of which has been partly completed, will visit the isthmus and make investigations of conditions there most complete so that congress may be prepared to act intelligently as soon as it is decided that the work of fortifying shall begin.

Col. Goethals, the chairman and the chief engineer of the canal commission, has promised that the canal shall be ready to be opened by January 1, 1915, and the president and his cabinet feel that the work of placing that waterway in an impregnable position should be finished or at least well under way by the time the canal is ready for practical use.

The board will consist of Brig. Gen. William L. Marshall, chief of engineers; Brig. Gen. William Crozier, chief of ordnance; Brig. Gen. Arthur Murray, chief of coast artillery; Brig. Gen. W. W. Witherspoon, assistant chief of staff; two naval officers yet to be selected, and possibly others.

The general question of the fortifications for the canal has been discussed by the army and navy for years. It is possible that if the report of the board is made in time congress may at this session appropriate money for the work.

The board in 1905 took the position that while it might appear that the ultimate defense of the canal must rest with the navy, the fleet should not be tied so closely to it as to lose its offensive power.

The board recommended the installation at the entrances of eight 12-inch guns eleven 3-inch guns and thirty-two 12-inch mortars with the necessary accessories.

Daily Thought.

The way to meet some doubts is to look them squarely in the face and then blow them away.

Why don't they get an affidavit from one of Peary's Eskimos that Councilman Bower is a liar.

Kentucky doctors at the state medical association referred to Kentucky asylum as relics of the dark ages.

No allusion to the last preceding administration, we presume.

While President Taft is resting at his brother's ranch, he will hunt jack rabbits and wild cats, go swimming in the gulf, play golf, and ride horseback. Then he will fare forth and tackle his horny handed constituents once more.

The denial of Mr. Oliphant in the News-Democrat was so broad that there was not room enough in the paper for a report of the proceedings of E. Barry and J. S. Ragdale to declare the nominations of W. V. Eaton and Eugene Graves illegal and void.

Mr. Oliphant said he was obliged to Bert Johnson for relieving him of the contract for Perkins' creek bridge, which he could not otherwise have finished this fall. Yet, we observed that the work went along faster after Bert resigned as county inspector and accepted the contract for the bridge.

WHOM WILL YOU BELIEVE?

Like the trite report, "his death was not unexpected, but it created quite a shock," was the melodramatic appearance of J. T. Oliphant, president of the Vincennes Bridge company, at the Milan meeting last night.

We anticipated his coming last evening in an editorial, but his debut, of course, was kept a carefully guarded secret, for the purpose of dramatic effect. When we heard he had started in an auto for the meeting, we could picture the scene—a honk of the auto, the beckoning finger, which the anxious Mr. Barkley followed toward the door, the spreading agitation as the news was whispered around the room, while yet Mr. Haz-elip was speaking, and then the introduction of Mr. Oliphant himself, and the banzai of Gus Singleton.

But what was it after all? Mr.

Oliphant finds himself in the cheerless position of trying to convince people of the falsity of a fact, about which they don't believe he would tell the truth, if it were so. No one expected Mr. Oliphant, who in a moment of unguarded confidence let out a trade secret, to admit it publicly.

No one expected him to come back here when the grand jury was investigating the very matter, about which he is so jealous of his honor, and he didn't come. Everybody expected him to come back after the grand jury had adjourned, and talk about personal honor, and he did.

As the News-Democrat remarked yesterday, we have the word of Councilman Bower against that of Mr.

Oliphant, or, to be more explicit, the affidavit of one against the other.

But Mr. Oliphant admits being with

Mr. Bower August 4, the day Mr. Bower alleges Oliphant made his observations anent the McCracken county court house ring, and Mr. Tully, from whom they hired the rig, and Mr. Bob Noble say that Bower told them of Oliphant's statement that evening on their return, when there was no thought of political consequences. Taking into consideration the attendant circumstances, the fact that they were together without other witnesses, that Bower repeated the conversation to reputable men immediately after it is alleged to have taken place, and that Oliphant would hardly be expected to publicly admit it even if he had said it, which affidavit is more likely to be uninfluenced by motives of self-preservation? The effort to prevent the consummation of the contract with the Vincennes Bridge company, the appointment of Bert Johnson as inspector for the county, the summoning of Johnson after much delay to Vincennes, where he was given the contract for the Perkins' creek bridge, and his resignation as bridge inspector, throw some light on the situation.

A HIGH PRECEDENT.

It appears that Chief Justice Nunn, of the court of appeals, gave the antislavery league its tip, on which it is proceeding to get W. V. Eaton and Eugene Graves off the Democratic ticket. When Judge Nunn was declared the nominee of this appellate district, the committeemen were not sworn, and they were summoned back a few weeks later duly sworn and caused to go through the formality of the nomination all over. Thus, we see that the chief justice of the court of appeals of Kentucky, before whom the mandamus proceedings from this county eventually will be heard, considered the formality of swearing committee in the instance of his own nomination of sufficient importance to summon them over a hundred miles to do their work over. Just how the courts will hold on the present issue, we do not know; but the action of the committee in Judge Nunn's case is, at least significant.

WHOSE CEMENT WAS USED?

In his affidavit denying he ever made a statement about county graft, Mr. J. T. Oliphant, president of the Vincennes Bridge company, said: "Nor it is true that our company was in any way interfered with or held up as to the purchase of cement. We bought our cement from Barry & Henneberger for $1.21 a barrel, which I consider to be a reasonable price." Walving the statement of a local dealer that it can be bought on the market for $1, we quote Mr. Oliphant as repeated in the News-Democrat this morning:

"It is true that I kicked against the price which Barry & Henneberger tried to charge me for cement, but that was a business matter between me and Barry and Henneberger, and the fiscal court, nor any other county official, had absolutely nothing in the world to do with that. They asked me $1.25 a barrel for cement, but I told them all I wanted was a square deal, and so I offered them $1.21."

Whose local cement plant was leased for the purpose of furnishing cement under this contract?

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Regarding Mr. James C. Utterback, who was elected president of the Kentucky Bankers' association the Courier-Journal says:

"J. C. Utterback, of Paducah, who is the new president of the Kentucky State Bankers' association, looks so much like the retiring executive, J. R. Downing, of Georgetown, that they have frequently been mistaken for each other. This fact, of course, makes the transition of administration easy, since the bankers will hardly know that they have changed presidents. Both of them have a salt hair—that is, the hair they have is light—and each confesses a bald spot of increasing proportions. Each has blue eyes and a smile that works overtime, and each is close shaven. When one adds to the list the fact that both are excellent bankers and hard workers for the association, the comparison seems to make them pretty nearly as much alike as the Gold Dust Twins. Naturally, however, neither of them objects to the resemblance, but regards it in the nature of a compliment paid to him by Dame Nature."

THE PUBLIC FORUM.

The Denver Opera House was packed with people. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts held their attention for a time but they were impatient to hear "Teddy." He was late. He had not yet arrived. Expectation became noisy, restless, hostile. Presently we heard the low grumble of a crowd shouting in the street. The word was cried about that he was coming. And almost immediately, in a crash of music from the band, he strode down to the footlights and faced the shouting audience.

He looked tired. But without waiting for silence, with his head down as if he were about to charge, he bared his teeth and uttered something unintelligible in a hoarse voice. The audience roared. He took a long breath, watching them, dogged, determined, baring his lungs, and then—with a sudden gesture that compelled silence—he screamed at them, with all his teeth showing: "We stand on—on—a gold—platform!" It came to them like a blow in the face; and before they could take voice, he added, pounding out the words with his fist: "We stand for the same thing in Colorado that we stand for in New York."

Judge of Ballard.

He got no further. The shout of applause that followed came in a roar of delight from a thousand throats. They cheered him as if he had said the one thing they had been waiting to hear, instead of the very thing that no Republican politician in Denver would have dared whisper to any single one of them in the dark behind a locked door. They cheered him as if they would spit their throats. A startled Democratic politician who stood near me cried: "Great G—! He hasn't converted this crowd to the gold standard, has he?" The wisdom of politicians! They cheered his courage, his truth, his defiance of political hedging, his honesty, his manliness. It was the cheer of pride, of love, of admiration. It was the voice of our people raised to greet those very qualities in a politician which the Beast has tried to crush. It was, to me, the voice of hope.

I went home that night resolved never to forget the lesson. Often since, when I have faced the host of prejudiced opposition from my own small stage in public life, I have remembered Roosevelt, and filled my lungs again, and cleared my throat for another defiance. For I believe, in that way, with our people, there is hope—The "Beast and the Jungle," in the November Everybody's.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Eaton's Political Ethics, Condemned By Barry's Friends.

The friends of Judge E. Barry, of Benton, are very indignant over a remark made by W. V. Eaton this morning after reading the petition of the Democratic voters, nominating Judge Barry as the Democratic candidate for state senator. The remark to which the friends of Judge Barry take exception was: "I guess Barry's name will have to go on the ballot. I don't know under what device, but I will suggest the picture of Judas Iscariot as the device." The friends of Judge Barry take the position that no more honest or honorable man can be found in the entire state of Kentucky, and that there are certain ethics in politics that one gentleman should accord to another, and are incensed at the insinuation of Mr. Eaton.

A FRIEND OF BARRY.

DRAINAGE

QUESTION IS BOTHERING CITY ENGINEER.

Level Streets On Which Curb, Gutters and Sidewalks Are to Be Built.

To run water on the level. This is one of the most difficult tasks City Engineer L. A. Washington has ever undertaken since he has been in the business, and it is up to him and this morning he was hard at work trying to figure out the problem.

Several weeks ago the general council, along with several more ordinances for sidewalk improvements, passed an ordinance for the improvement of Clay street from Eight street to Fountain avenue by the construction of concrete sidewalks on both sides of the street, granite curbing and concrete gutters. This section of the city is flat. From Fountain avenue to Eighth street is nine blocks and there is only a slight slope in the stretch. Thus the drainage question made necessary by the construction of concrete sidewalks has involved a big problem, and in order to make a drain for the surface water the city engineer is laboring daily.

Let us show you how prompt we can replace your broken window glass. Both phones 177, E. P. Gilson & Co., Incorporated.

Farewell Shower for Mrs. Cheek.
In farewell to Mrs. John S. Cheek, who left today for Texas to reside, the ladies of the First Baptist church gave a "surprise shower" last evening at the home of Mrs. W. E. Covington, on Jefferson street. Mrs. Cheek has been the house guest of Mrs. Covington since breaking up her home at 217 North Fifth street.

The shower was a prettily planned affair and a perfect surprise to the recipient. The gifts included many pretty and useful articles. They were brought in on a silver waiter. Delightful refreshments were served during the evening by Mrs. Covington. Many friends of Mrs. Cheek were present to bid her farewell and god-speed.

Mrs. Cheek has greatly endeared herself to a large circle of friends during her residence in Paducah. Her husband, the Rev. John S. Cheek, was the pastor of the First Baptist church at the time of his death and was a greatly beloved man. The family have made Paducah their home ever since and deep regret is felt at their departure. Winfree-Denker.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Katherine Winfree and Mr. George Denker last night at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eva B. Winfree, 1201 Jefferson street.

The ceremony was solemnized in the library under an arch of evergreens. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winfree, who were recently married in Louisville. The Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Mr. Hahn. The Rev. William Grother of the German Lutheran church pronounced the ceremony.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white lace and white taffeta and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Mrs. J. W. Winfree wore her wedding dress, a charming creation. After the ceremony an informal reception was held. Ice, cakes and punch were served in the dining room. Red and white was the color motif of the ice. The bride's cake was lighted by red candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Denker will be at the Palmer House until their new home, 1607 Clay street, is ready for occupancy.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bahr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wadking, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wadking and Mrs. Wadking of Louisville.

Donnigan-McKinney Wedding and Reception.

A beautiful wedding was that of Miss Marguerite Donnigan, of this city, and Mr. George R. McKinney, of Evansville, this morning at 9 o'clock at the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. The ceremony was a nuptial high mass impressively solemnized by the Reverend Father Connolly, assisted by the Rev. Father George M. Connor.

The music was a beautiful part of the service and was under the direction of Father Connor. Miss Flora Glauber presided at the organ. Solos were rendered by Miss Anna Heil and Father Connor. The church was effectively decorated with palms.

The attendants were: Miss Katherine Donnigan, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. Mr. Fred Schoeflin, of Evansville, was the best man, and Mr. J. K. Cantrell and Mr. Akers, of Evansville, were the ushers.

The bride's dainty blonde beauty was enhanced by the exquisite wedding dress of white satin, elaborately trimmed with pearl passementerie and lace. She wore the bridal veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor wore an effective costume of white chiffon cloth and a picture hat of white beaver. She carried pink chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Donnigan, on North Eighth street. The table was an artistic effect in white and green. Bride roses formed the centerpiece and ropes of smilax extended from the center to the four corners. In addition to the bridal party, the following out-of-town guests were present: Mrs. Louis Wolfgang, of Evansville; Mrs. O. C. Carleton, of Dyersburg, Tenn.; Mrs. O. Smith, of Dyersburg, Tenn.

This afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock a reception is being given at the Donnigan home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. McKinney. The parlor is effectively decorated with red roses and ferns. In the hall pink and white chrysanthemums are artistically arranged. The dining room is a pretty emphasis of the white and green motif.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinney will leave at 6:15 o'clock this evening for a bridal trip to New Orleans. The bride's going-away gown is a grey chiffon cloth, with hat, shoes and gloves of grey. They will make their home in Evansville.

LOVE LAUGHS

LOST ESTATE TO BE RETURNED FOR GIRL'S HAND.

On Their Wedding Day John A. Stevens, Will Present Bride With Father's Home.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Again has true love not only triumphed but reversed the life of misfortune.

The beautiful country estate at Oconomowoc, Wis., on which the late James H. Eckels had spent a fortune, is to be a bridal gift to his daughter, Miss Phoebe Eckels. On their wedding day, Nov. 17, John A. Stevens, the wealthy clubman, will present to his bride the superb home which she and her mother were certain was lost to them forever.

A close friend of the Eckels family so said today, adding that the purchaser of the property at the receiver's sale of the Eckels estate has been arranged.

James H. Eckels, president of the Commercial National Bank, former comptroller of the currency, close friend of Grover Cleveland, had a national reputation as a financier. He died suddenly April 14, 1907, and it soon became plain that his last years were passed in a vain struggle to save his fortune.

Large claims, many held by estate, were made against his estate. Out of the wreck the courts have allowed his widow to retain $150,000, the amount of his life insurance, and the silver and earlows her husband owned. Mrs. Eckels and her daughter now live in a small house at No. 83 Elm street.

The Eckels and Stevens families were neighbors on Prairie avenue.

Miss Lettie Smith

Announces to her many friends and the public that, after Monday, Oct. 11th, she will be pleased to see and serve them at here. Miss Phoebe and young Stevens were playmates, then sweethearts. After her father's death he asked her mother for her hand in marriage. A touching scene followed. Mrs. Eckels, much affected, told Mr. Stevens that so far from being immensely wealthy, she and her daughter were comparatively poor.

MRS. J. W. SHERRILL'S Millinery Parlors, 312 Broadway.

"I asked you to give me Phoebe," said Stevens. "I have enough money for both of us, for all of us."

So in a month the young pair will marry.

ROCKY BOY RESCUED.

Noted Chief of Chippewas and Band Were Starving.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Rocky Boy and his band of Chippewa Indians, numbering about 150 braves, encamped near Bird's Eye, Mont., probably will owe their rescue from death by starvation to the promptness of Indian officials, who took speedy means to relieve the desperate plight of the red men. Some concern was felt by officials when a message came from the Indian allotting agent at Glasgow, Mont., telling of the condition of the band, noted for its daring, and suggesting the extreme to which hunger might drive them. As a result of orders issued by the war department to the commanding officer at Fort Harrison, Mont., ample supplies are being rushed to the Indians, who for weeks have subsisted on scant herbs.

THREE I LEADERS MEET

And Adjourned With Seven Clubs Still in Circuit.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—The Three "I" league met with an eight club circuit and adjourned with only seven. President Sexton announced that he would not serve again. Cedar Rapids gave up its franchise. The Decatur club shifted to Danville. No city will be chosen in the place of Cedar Rapids and no president elected until after the meeting of the National Association of Minor Leagues, as Three "I" magnates wish to confer with the representatives of the Central league and Central association before completing the circuit.

Lorimer Has Returned.

New York, Oct. 20.—Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, who is a member of the congressional committee which studied the waterways of Europe, arrived last night. Lorimer said the "Rhine provides an interesting parallel with the Mississippi. The same genius that stopped overflows and converted the German stream into a highway of water commerce would be able to conquer our big river."

Smuggler is Fined.

New York, Oct. 20.—G. I. Schnull, of Indianapolis, who was arrested September 13, upon his arrival from Europe, charged with smuggling a $500 diamond brooch, pleaded guilty and was fined $200 in addition to forfeiting the jewelry, according to Collector Loeb. The customs officer found the brooch in Schnull's pocket.

River Ripples.

The Bob Dudley, the Evansville packet, cleared port at 9 o'clock last night for Evansville. The rise in the past two days is enabling her to navigate more safely in the bad channel between here and Evansville.

The Clyde returned here yesterday from Joppa and Metropolis and is receiving freight at the wharboast today. She departs this evening at 6 o'clock and will have a big trip of freight and many passengers.

The City of Saltillo arrived at St. Louis this morning and either she or the City of Savannah will leave at 5 o'clock this afternoon for the Tennessee river. It had not been decided yesterday which boat would be sent down the Mississippi river with President Taft.

The St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet company is booking reservations for that trip.

The installation of new boilers on the little tugboat Morgan will be completed by the Fowler-Wolfe Boiler company this week and the boat will get busy handling tows in the Tennessee river.

If the river continues rising the Golconda packet Ohio will soon be able to get over the Sisters and proceed on to Golconda daily. For two weeks she has been running between here and Bay City, being unable to get over the bar on account of low water.

Rivermen were all smiles this morning when they looked out on a steady rain falling. A rise is coming out of the Tennessee and down the Ohio and a few more feet of water here is looked for.

This morning Wharfmaster Frank Prown, who has been confined to his home over a week with appendicitis, was much better and his many friends hope for his speedy recovery. Al Rittenhouse is acting as wharfmaster while Captain Brown is confined.

Capt. E. L. Dorsey, supervising steamboat inspector of this port, was busy yesterday afternoon addressing letters to various inspectors under his jurisdiction and other government officials stationed down-stream regarding President Taft's inspection tour. Letters were mailed to the officials at Hickman, Cairo and Greenville, Ky., and Memphis, Tenn., requesting them to see that the channel be cleared of United States dredge-boats and all other vessels until after the president's flotilla has passed.

Rules and regulations covering the itinerary of the fleet which will accompany the president down-stream were issued from the local office yesterday at the instance of Washington.

authorities. Masters and pilots are especially asked to see that the instructions are obeyed. The order of the vessels will be formed at St. Louis October 25, under the direction of the steamboat inspection service.—Louisville Herald.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch of Sunday says: "We want $6,000 and we want it in six minutes," was the first sentence of the address made by P. M. Raina, treasurer of the Christian Missionary society of the Christian church, in opening the dedicatory exercises of the missionary boat, the Oregon, at the James Ross & Sons' company plant at Fourth street and Duquesway last evening. And it took just about that much time to get the money. More than 5,000 persons were present in the big plant of the ship builders when the boat was formally dedicated. Delegates in attendance at the church convention from every state and territory in the Union were there, but of course those from Oregon predominated.

River navigators anticipate that the vessels of the president's fleet will have trouble in conforming strictly to the sailing instructions, when passing shoal sandbars in low water the current swerving off these bars strikes a vessel and causes the pilot to lose temporary control, the vessel failing to answer the rudder. They also believe that some of the vessels will have difficulty in negotiating the schedule planned, as the water is now about as low as practicable for navigation and low water lessens the speed.

No Imitation for Anty Drudge.

Grocer's boy—"The boss told me to tell you he was just out of Fels-Naptha, but that this soap is just as good, and he's sure you'll like it."

Anty Drudge—"Just out—is he! Well, he's going to be out some more. If he thinks I'm going to use an imitation of Fels-Naptha, just so's he can get a bigger rake-off, he's got another think coming. Some other grocer will get my trade in the future."

Any invention that saves time and labor is bound to come into universal use. Witness the sewing machine, the telephone, the electric light and scores of others. They were received with doubt at first; now every intelligent person takes advantage of them.

So Fels-Naptha soap will some day be used by every woman in this country who washes clothes. More than a million now make it save them time, bother and hard work, and the number is growing every wash-day. If you are not one of these million modern women, you will be some day—just as soon as you have courage enough to break away from old-fashioned methods. Every week your delay means another half day of backbreaking labor, coal or gas wasted, danger of colds from steam, unnecessary wear and tear on clothes.

With Fels-Naptha you can wash in cold or lukewarm water without hard rubbing, and in half the time it takes by the wash-boiler method. Follow closely the directions on the red and green wrapper.

UNCLE SAMUEL IS RERL ESTATE MAN

HAS MANY MILLIONS INVESTED IN IT.

List of His Property in Washington and Other Large Cities of the Land.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Washington, Oct. 20. (United Press)—Talking about concentrated wealth, your Uncle Samuel is something of a landed proprietor himself. Disregarding the vast areas of public lands in the west to which he holds title, his navy yards, army posts, etc., he is worth several hundred millions of dollars in improved city real estate alone.

In fact, it is a pretty safe bet that the United States government has more money tied up in office buildings throughout the country than all the multi-millionaires that could be named. They are scattered through every state and territory and they are all situated in growing cities and towns on specially selected sites. So it is reasonable to suppose that if, for any reason, Uncle Sam should ever decide to sell out his real estate holdings he would be able to make a pretty profit on his original investments.

Following is the original cost of the government buildings in some of the principal cities of the country: New York, $8,549,832; St. Louis, $5,686,854; Chicago, $5,106,574; Cincinnati, $5,088,382; Boston, $5,081,970; Philadelphia, $4,623,943; San Francisco, $2,700,571; Cleveland, $1,994,618; Indianapolis, $1,990,218; Pittsburgh, $1,610,462; Baltimore, $1,534,278.

Altogether there has been a total of $178,672,989 of the people's money invested in these public buildings. They are mostly court-houses, customs houses, and post-offices, although there are a few quarantine stations and hospitals among the lot. This total does not include the value of the sites which, while in many instances donated, yet represent an additional outlay for those which had to be purchased of $40,087,265, making an aggregate of $218,760,254. Nor does this include any of the important department buildings of the District of Columbia except the treasury department itself and some of its outlying offices in this city. It only represents those structures which are directly under the control of the treasury department.

The original cost of the construction of these buildings was $152,924,041. Extensions and alterations that have been made to them have cost $11,042,150, and there has been spent in their annual repairs and maintenance $14,795,897.

As might be supposed, New York state secured the largest share of this stupendous outlay, and New York City, with its expensive sites and large needs, was, of course, mostly responsible. The total cost of the government's buildings in the Empire state was $9,160,179, up to June 30 last. To this should be added $9,189,059 expended for sites. The nearest approach to that figure was the $12,449,767 spent for construction in Pennsylvania, with $4,962,586 for the necessary ground.

Missouri comes third with $9,914,806 spent in brick and stone, and structural iron work. Then comes Ohio with $9,911,895; Massachusetts with $9,882,149; Illinois with $9,530,449; California with $9,431,143; and the District of Columbia with $9,063,239. The latter, however, includes the original cost of the treasury department building which is put at $6,470,090.

The smallest amount spent in any state or territory by the treasury department on its buildings is in Arizona where the total to date only reaches the insignificant sum of $635 for the maintenance of the old custom house at Yuma. Soon, however, it is supposed, the government will build its first public building in that territory for it has just paid $10,000 for the site for a postoffice and court house at Phoenix, although no appropriation has been made for the building. With these exceptions Arizona has been totally neglected.

Even Alaska has fared better at the public crib for it has two custom houses, one of which, at Mary Island, cost to construct, $7,448.43, and another at Sand Point which cost $7,448.42. It is understood that the Mary Island folks are so swelled with pride that they scarcely condescend to speak to the Sand Pointers on account of that one cent difference in the cost of their public building. To maintain these and some structures which have been taken over by the treasury department $58,944 has been expended, making the total spent in Alaska $72,841. In Hawaii it has been $114,303; in Porto Rico $25,844.

There are 522 of these public buildings now in use in the United States. In addition there are 114 in course of erection and 263 authorized but not yet commenced, making a total of 988. It is interesting to note how the vast amount of money spent by the government to beautify the towns and to house its public servants has been distributed.

In New England, Connecticut got $2,123,416; Maine, $6,584,314; Mas-

AN ITCHING PALM

No Cure for it. Other Forms of Itching Preferable.

There is no cure for an itching palm—the money kind. Even poslam, the new skin discovery, cannot heal it. But when it comes to eczema, the most annoying of itching skin troubles, poslam will stop the itching at once and cure the worst cases in a few days. So with hives, rash, scabies, split toes, piles, and scaly scalp, all of which are different forms of eczema, accompanied by severe itching and caused by imperfect digestion and careless diet. Poslam comes in two-dollar jars, but fifty cents' worth will answer in curing any of the diseases mentioned. It can be had of any druggist. Gilbert's and R. W. Walker & Co., make a specialty of it.

That results are immediate will be amply demonstrated overnight by the use of the experimental sample which the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City, will send free by mail, in plain wrapper, to any one who will write for it. No. 2

Central Atlantic, Delaware, $678,063; District of Columbia, $9,063,239; New Jersey, $1,764,965; New York, $29,160,179; and Pennsylvania $12,449,767, making a total of $53,116,213.

Middle West, Illinois, $9,530,449; Indiana, $3,866,597; Iowa, $3,368,643; Kansas, $1,461,740; Michigan, $3,519,193; Minnesota, $3,503,853; Nebraska, $2,550,596; North Dakota, $372,268; Ohio, $9,911,895; Oklahoma, $104,383; South Dakota, $884,174; and Wisconsin, $2,231,447, a total of $42,303,241.

Mountain states, Colorado, $1,951,639; Idaho, $325,403; Montana, $677,394; Utah, $813,767; Wyoming, $663,190, a total of $2,431,393.

Pacific states, California, $9,431,143; Nevada, $667,214; Oregon, $1,457,171; and Washington, $1,758,327, a total of $13,313,860.

Certainly in these figures there is no basis for complaint from the south that she has been neglected when the "pork bar" was on tap.

JUDGE HENSON ORDERS THOROUGH INVESTIGATION

Henderson, Ky., Oct. 20.—In a charge to the grand jury yesterday Judge J. W. Henson, of the circuit court, asked for an investigation of the charge that he had given a tip to the defense in the suit of A. G. Crutchfield against George L. Campbell. Judge Henson requested the grand jury to make a written report to the court. The suit against Campbell was to oust him as chairman of the Henderson county board. It claimed that he was illegally elected. The court decided in favor of Campbell.

Headache For Years

"I keep Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills on hand all the time, and would not think of taking a journey without them, no matter how short a distance I am going. I have a sister that has had terrible headaches for years, and I coaxed her to try them, and they helped her so much, she now keeps them by her all the time. From my own experience I cannot praise them enough."

MRS. LOU M. CHURCHILL, 63 High st., Penacook, N. H.

Many persons have headache after any little excitement or exertion. They cannot attend church, lectures, entertainments, or ride on trains without suffering. Those who suffer in this way should try Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They give almost instant relief without leaving any disagreeable after-effects, as they do not derange the stomach or bowels; just a pleasurable sense of relief follows their use. LABOR LEADERS PRAISE FERRER

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL A. F. OF L. DECLARE MARTYR.

A "Military Murderer" Is Way Execution of Revolutionist Is Described in Resolution.

OTHER LABOR MATTERS UP

Washington, Oct. 20.—Resolution fiercely denouncing the "murder" of Ferrer and declaring that his "martyrdom" has given the "cause of liberty a great impetus not only in Spain and the European monarchial countries, but everywhere that the human aspiration for freedom yet seeks attainment," were adopted at Tuesday's session of executive council of the American Federation of Labor.

Taken in connection with the sentencing of President Gompers, Secretary Morrison and John Mitchell to jail for contempt of court, the concluding paragraph of the resolution is regarded as significant. It declares: "We take this occasion of the military murder of a man whose real offending was speaking, writing and teaching humanity to become more free, free and liberty loving, to remind the people of our own country that the liberty of the citizens is only secure when trial by jury in an open court for any alleged offense involving punishment is guaranteed."

The belief is expressed that Ferrer will rank with all men who have done greatest service to humanity's noble company of martyrs, and a cause in which a man might well give his life did tyranny require it. Like Jefferson, Washington and Lincoln, he labored, taught and suffered that the people might have wisdom and be worthy of freedom.

President Hayes, of the Glass Bottle Blowers' association protested against the Illinois Federation of Labor recognizing the Flint Glass Workers' Union, whereupon a telegram was sent to President Wright of the Illinois branch stating that the Flint Glass Workers' organization, having without cause seceded from the American Federation, is not entitled to recognition until it complied with the decisions of the American Federation's convention and the executive council.

Meeting in New York.

New York, Oct. 20.—Five thousand men and women tonight at Carnegie Hall adopted resolutions declaring that "Ferrer's life was taken because of an unselfish devotion to the work of education and enlightenment. We feel a deep humiliation at our government's maintenance of diplomatic relations with the Russian and Spanish governments which have proved themselves to be outside of civilization."

OVER EIFFEL TOWER

COUNT DE LAMBERT USES A WRIGHT MACHINE IN FLIGHT

Darkness Was Falling When Aeroplane Returns, But it is Received With Enthusiasm.

Paris, Oct. 19.—Count de Lambert, the French aviator, made a remarkable and sensational flight in a Wright biplane. Leaving the Juvisy aviation field, he flew to Paris, circled the Eiffel Tower, at times reaching a height of about 1,000 feet above the city, and then returned to Juvisy.

The distance from Juvisy to Paris on an air line is 13 miles. The aeronaut left Juvisy at 4:35 p. m., traveling at a height of about 250 feet. Half an hour later Paris was amazed to see the biplane approaching the city, high in the air.

As the machine neared the Seine it ascended higher and higher, finally passing about 300 feet above the Eiffel Tower, 1,200 feet above the ground.

Darkness was falling when the aeronaut was sighted by the crowds at Juvisy again. A speck on the horizon, it enlarged and approached through the gathering gloom, amid almost indescribable enthusiasm. The spectators had been notified by wire that the machine had reached Paris. It landed gently before its shed.

Woman Fatally Hurt.

M. Blanc, the French aeronaut, shortly after ascending in a Bleriot monoplane, as the result of a false shift of the rudder, turned into the tribune and fell, mortally wounding a woman and injuring a dozen other persons.

Up Before the Bar.

N. H. Brown, an attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." For Chills, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Headache they work wonders. 25c at all druggists.

Let Me Tell You Something

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched condition.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J. — "It is with pleasure that I send my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefit of this valuable remedy. 'I suffered from pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise.'—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 902 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Erie, Pa. — "I suffered for five years from female troubles, and at last was almost helpless. I tried three doctors but they did me no good. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has made me well and strong. I hope all suffering women will just give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, for it is worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. Endlich, R. F. D. 7, Erie, Pa.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.
